Enthusiasm and energy, commitment and experience: It all came together for Eileen Filler-Corn in her thrilling, squeak-by victory over Republican lobbyist Kerry D. Bolognese in the special election Tuesday for the 41st district seat left vacant by Dave Marsden's win in the Senate.

"Eileen Filler-Corn's victory over the Republican contender is a victory for all working families in the 41st district," commented Denny Martire, VP of the LiUNA! Mid-Atlantic Region. "Her platform of jobs and sustained excellence in our schools resonated with the voters and got them to turn out in record numbers. Add to that our orange brigade of LiUNA! volunteer door-knockers and other community volunteers and you have the winning factors. We're very excited for Eileen and look forward to working with her in the months and years to come."
